Principals

Kiley Lynn Grombacher

Kiley Grombacher been a member of the State Bar of California since 2006.

Ms. Grombacher's involvement in various forms of class action litigation spans more than a decade during which time I have litigated hundreds of class actions. Ms. Grombacher began my legal career at Arias, Ozzello & Gignac where I specialized in and gained extensive experience litigating consumer cases. Thereafter, Ms. Grombacher joined Marlin & Saltzman in 2010 where she focused her practice almost exclusively on class, collective and enforcement actions including the reported case, Faulkinbury v. Boyd & Associates, which clarified the holding in a seminal case, Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court to establish that legality of certain company policies could be determined on a class-wide basis even if the application of the policies varies by individual.

Ms. Grombacher has been appointed either lead or co-lead counsel including cases in multi-district litigation or coordinated proceedings where I worked collaboratively and cooperatively with co-counsel to bring about an efficient and beneficial resolution for all class members as the above results demonstrate.

Ms. Grombacher has argued cases before trial courts and courts of appeal. Her writings on legal topics pertaining to class and representative actions have appeared in professional publications and she has been called upon to speak at conferences and seminars for professional organizations. ## CONSUMER LITIGATION

GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP successfully litigated on behalf of consumers throughout the United States. Individuals in our society work hard to provide for their families and deserve to rely upon truthful information when purchasing products and services. Accordingly, we fight for consumers when corporations attempt to deceive or take advantage of customers. Consumer fraud occurs when a customer buys a product that does not perform as represented or advertised, or purchases services that are not the same as represented or advertised.

The Firm is committed to protecting and defending the rights of defrauded consumers. Our Consumer Practice Group focuses upon companies that reap millions of dollars in profits by misrepresenting their products or services. In many instances, class actions provide the only viable avenue to vindicate a person's rights as a consumer. Accordingly, the Firm has taken a leading role in many of the most significant federal and consumer fraud cases throughout the country. Indeed, the Firm's Consumer Practice Group has obtained outstanding results for consumers. For example, in Pascussi v. Airtouch Communications, a cellular phone service provider improperly charged all of its Michigan customers for certain calls. Through our class action lawsuit, the Firm recovered a settlement of $30 million for injured consumers. The Firm's Consumer Practice Group similarly represents consumers nationwide in a variety of important consumer cases and has achieved significant results through our efforts. The Firm is currently Co-Lead Counsel in Goodman v. UBS Finan. Serv., 21-cv-18123 (D.N.J.) (alleging UBS incorrectly reported tax information to clients) and in a case brought pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act in O'Garro v. City of New Jersey, 20-cv-5282 (D.N.J.) (alleging American with Disabilities Act violations in Jersey City streets and curb cuts).

The Firm has also represented clients in many security breaches and breach of privacy cases, including Gordon v. Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc. (D. Colo. 17-cv-1415); Hameed-Bolden v. Forever 21 Retail (C.D. Cal. 18-cv-3019); In re Yahoo! Inc. Customer Data Breach Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 16-md-2752); Brady v. Scotty's Holdings (N.D. Ind. 19-cv-4782); *Whalen v. Sunrise Med. The Class's claims were for breaches of fiduciary duty, breaches of contract, and violations of the Minnesota Prevention of Consumer Fraud Act (Minn. Stat. § 325F.69). The lawsuit alleged that through its administration of its securities lending program, Wells Fargo breached its contractual agreements with and fiduciary duties to the Class and violated the Minnesota Prevention of Consumer Fraud Act. Specifically, the Class Action alleged that CFHERS and other Class members entered into securities lending agreements and other agreements with Wells Fargo. Pursuant to such agreements, Wells Fargo loaned CFHERS's and Class members' securities to third party borrowers in return for cash collateral. In its complaint, CFHERS alleged that Wells Fargo acted imprudently by investing and maintaining the securities lending collateral in high risk, long-term securities on behalf of members of the Class, which violated the express terms and principle objectives of the securities lending agreements. The alleged high risk, long-term securities included, but were not limited to, structured investment vehicles, mortgage-backed securities, other asset-backed securities, and corporate bonds for such companies as Lehman Brothers and Bear Stearns. Finally, CFHERS alleged that Wells Fargo's improper conduct as the administrator of the securities lending program caused substantial losses to CFHERS and members of the Class. On the eve of trial, the case settled for $62.5 million.

Mercury Interactive Corporation Securities Litigation, N.D. Cal., Case No. 5:05-cv-3395

Mercury made a series of public disclosures concerning possible unreported backdating of stock options. As these disclosures of potential wrongdoing at Mercury became more serious, it was announced that the CEO, CFO, and General Counsel would be resigning because they had been aware of, participated in, and benefitted from repeated instances of illegal stock options backdating. Mercury's stock price dropped significantly in reaction to these announcements and created a huge, unfair loss to investors. Serving as Co-Lead Counsel, GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP achieved a recovery for investors of over $117 million.

Real Estate Associates Securities Litigation, C.D. Cal., Case No. 98-cv-07035

Rule 10b-5. Although defendants were in possession of materially adverse information about Conseco's liquidity problems and problems with the collectability of the Company's mobile home loans, they failed to fully disclose the information to investors, causing Conseco's stock price to become artificially inflated. GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP achieved a $41.5 million recovery for investors.

ANTITRUST PRACTICE GROUP

GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP has established a significant antitrust practice. Anti-competitive behavior interferes with the operation of economic markets. The prevalence of price-fixing and market allocation cases has increased at both the national and international levels. As government criminal investigations increase, civil litigation increasingly becomes important as a supplement to redress such misconduct.

The Firm's Antitrust Practice Group focuses upon representing individuals and entities who have been victimized by unlawful monopolization, price-fixing, market allocation, and other anti-competitive conduct. The Firm has prosecuted significant antitrust cases and has helped individuals and businesses recover billions of dollars. The Firm's Antitrust Practice Group represents consumers, businesses, and Health and Welfare Funds while prosecuting civil antitrust cases under federal and state laws throughout the country. The Firm has served as lead or co-lead counsel in numerous multi-district litigation antitrust cases and has won substantial settlements for plaintiffs in such cases. For instance, the Firm filed the initial landmark antitrust lawsuit against all of the major NASDAQ market-makers and served on Plaintiffs' Counsel's Executive Committee in In re Nasdaq Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, which recovered $900 million for investors. The Firm was Co-Lead Counsel in In re Korean Ramen Direct Antitrust Litigation in the Northern District of California which went to trial in November 2018.

The Firm also represents Institutional Taft Hartley Funds bringing legal actions on behalf of a number of funds to recover for excessive pricing of generic drugs. Such cases are often called "Pay for delay litigation." Some drug manufacturers have used a costly legal tactic that more and more branded drug manufacturers have been using to stifle competition from lower-cost generic medicines. These drug makers have been able to sidestep competition by offering patent settlements that pay generic companies not to bring lower-cost alternatives to market, after the brand named patent expires. These "pay-for-delay" patent settlements effectively block all other generic drug competition for a growing number of branded drugs. The Firm represents a number of Taft Hartley funds against drug manufacturers in conspiracy as part of these pay for delay agreements, costing fund members thousands of dollars.

GLANCY PRONGAY & MURRAY LLP and its antitrust lawyers have represented large and medium private corporations and health and welfare funds in both Direct and Indirect Purchaser Litigation, including Tiffin Motor Homes, Inc., The Rice Co., Inc., White Oak Fund, LLP, Plumbers & Pipefitters Local 178 Health & Welfare Fund, United Firefighters Assn., United Fire Officers Ass'n, Purdy Bros.
